50 Orthopedic Practices to Know

Written by Laura Miller | June 20, 2011

Orthopedic practices were selected for inclusion on this list based on practice size, services and reputation in their communities. This list was created after substantial research by our editorial staff. Practices do not pay and cannot pay to be included on this list. This list is not an endorsement of any organization's clinical abilities.

Methodist Sports Medicine/The Orthopedic Specialists (Indianapolis). With four locations around Indianapolis, physicians at Methodist Sports Medicine/The Orthopaedic Specialists are able to offer several avenues for orthopedic care, including a walk-in clinic. All physicians are fellowship trained in their subspecialties, which include sports medicine, pediatric sports medicine, spine, joint replacement, extremities and shoulder care. The practice also has specialists who focus on physical medicine and rehabilitation and concussion management. Practice physicians are involved in the Methodist Sports Medicine/The Orthopaedic Specialists Research and Education Foundation, which focuses on research in orthopedic care and sports medicine.
